Roadworks to start again after short Christmas break

DELAYS AHEAD ON COUNTY'S ROADS

Scientists and families enjoy day of Lego

PARENTS and youngsters teamed up for a day of building with Lego at the Diamond Light Source in Harwell on December 22

They worked on a replica of the site after senior technician Paul Amos wanted a way of explaining what he does to his son

For full story see page 11

AFTER a Christmas reprieve a series of roadwork projects are due to launch across Oxfordshire sparking a warning to drivers from the county's transport boss

As of Monday the second phase of work on London Road in Oxford will begin with 500 metres being resurfaced between the junctions of Northfield Road and Wharton Road.

Work will also begin this month on creating a hamburger style roundabout at Milton Interchange near Didcot, expected to last for much of the year.

Roadworks for a £5.5million revamp of Frideswide Square outside Oxford Station and £500m Westgate Shopping Centre are also set to begin.

While £1.3m works on improving The Plain roundabout in the city was delayed in October until early 2015.

It comes as a £7m scheme to improve the Kennington and Hinksey roundabouts was completed in December.

And Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet member for transport David Nimmo Smith said traffic could back up as projects either begin or start up again.

By Adam Flinn
adam.flinn@oxfordmailnewspapers.co.uk

He said "We are entering into a major phase of regeneration with exciting projects coming up.

There will be a number of schemes to ensure that the transport infrastructure is able to meet the demands that will be placed on it in future years.

"We have to accept that there will be delays while this work is going on."

Work on Frideswide Square will see the road layout remodelled by removing the traffic lights and creating roundabouts in an effort to improve traffic flow starting from February.

The first phase of the Frideswide Square development finished last month, which saw four way lights installed at Worcester Street.

And the development of Westgate was approved by Oxford City Council in December with the multi storey car park due to shut from January 5.

Cllr Nimmo Smith added. "Although this work will cause disruption we must remember why so much is being done."

NEWS REVIEW 2014

Oxfordshire Guardian reporters Jack Johnson and Adam Flinn take a look back at what has happened in 2014

Celebrity

A WIDE selection of famous faces and celebrities paid a visit to Oxfordshire over the course of the year

The royal family were well represented in the county during 2014

Prince William (pictured) visited Oxford University in September on the same day it was announced that Kate was pregnant with their second child

Crowds gathered outside the university and shouted cheers of congratulations to William as he arrived, with some of those having travelled from as far as the United States

Kate had been scheduled to open the China Centre building along with William, but had to pull out because she was suffering from morning sickness

Three of the Queen's children – Prince Charles, Princess Anne and Prince Edward – also made an appearance in the county

Charles opened a heritage garden at Great Milton restaurant Le Manoir aux Quat Saisons last month, while Anne had a look round the Soldiers of Oxfordshire Museum in Woodstock

Edward visited King Alfred's Academy in Wantage and Dorchester Abbey in April, although a planned trip to Caterham F1 Team's base in Leafield had to be cancelled because of the wet weather.

And numerous dignitaries came to Oxfordshire in October to pay their respects to the 11th Duke of Marlborough at his funeral

The duke died in his sleep at Blenheim Palace

Wallingford was also transformed into a television set that month, as TV stars Harry Hill, David Mitchell and Ben Miller came to the town to film children's show Professor Branestawm

It was also revealed that George Clooney had bought a home near Henley with his wife Amal Alamuddin in October

Crime

TWO murder trials dominated the headlines after the deaths of teenagers Jayden Parkinson (below) and Connor Tremble

Ben Blakeley, 22, at Christchurch Road, Reading, was jailed for a minimum of 20 years on July 25 for the murder of his ex girlfriend Jayden, 17, on December 3 last year

And Will Blencowe, 21, of Oxford Road, Banbury, was sentenced to a minimum of 23 years on August 29 after slashing 17 year old Connor

The very nature of Jaydens death shook the county

Blakeley, Jayden's controlling and jealous ex-boyfriend strangled the pregnant 17 year old from Didcot in a field near Upton on December 3, 2013

After hiding Jayden, he buried her in his uncle's grave at All Saints Church in Didcot

Thames Valley Police confirmed it was the first case of its kind where a body had been put in an existing grave

A few weeks later, jealous Blencowe was found guilty of murdering 17 year-old Connor in his Oxford flat on February 13 this year

Blencowe stabbed Connor 15 times after finding out he was seeing his ex girlfriend Aimee Harrison

As Jayden and Conner's families found solace, another family were finally able to grieve 17 years after a house fire in Oxford.

Eight-year-old Anum Khan and her 15-year-old brother Majid died in the arson attack on their family home on Magdalen Road in 1997

Fiaz Munshi, 36, of Manley Road, Oldham, was jailed for 13 years after being found guilty of manslaughter on July 25

She became the seventh person to be jailed for the crime

Politics

OXFORDSHIRE County Council leader Ian Hudspeth got the ball rolling in April when he revealed his transport visions for the future

A monorail around the city headlined Cllr Hudspeth's Connecting Oxfordshire' launch which looked beyond £800m at investment by 2031 which was already pledged.

In May Labour dominated Oxford City Council's elections, retaining control by winning 17 at the 25 seats on offer

While UKIP were the big European elections winners in South East England as party leader Nigel Farage was joined by two at his other candidates

In October a new era began at South Oxfordshire District Council as John Cotton became its new leader after the death of Ann Ducker (pictured)

Mrs Ducker 71 died of cancer on September 21 and had been leader since 2003

Meanwhile, prime minister and Witney MP David Cameron paid a surprise trip to Didcot on September 27

He visited Great Western Park to announce a new policy of first home discounts for under 40s ahead of the Conservative Party Conference

And deputy prime minister Nick Clegg had breakfast with schoolchildren and celebrity chef Raymond Blanc in Oxford on November 3

He was at Brasserie Blanc to promote National School Meals Week and the introduction of his free school meals initiative back in September

However Mr Clegg did not leave the city without having a go at the county council, urging the authority to stop its 'grumbling' over the policy

That, as you would expect, sparked an angry reaction from Melinda Tilley the county council's cabinet member for education who said Mr Clegg's criticism was 'absolutely crass'

NEWS REVIEW 2014

Development

HOUSING developments were at the top of the agenda throughout 2014 as the five district councils drew up their local plans of where to build new homes

The Oxfordshire Strategic Housing Market Assessment (SHMA) claimed that more than 100,000 new houses needed to be built in the county by 2031.

And each council's attempts to fit their share of housing into their district has proved controversial with residents protesting against increasingly large developments in their neighbourhoods

The councils are still working on their local plans, which are currently going through the consultation stages ahead of being submitted to government

Individual developments have also stirred up emotions such as the ongoing saga over proposals to build 159 homes on Drayton Road in Abingdon

The development was dependant on the relocation of the pedestrian crossing on Marcham Road which was turned down in March before the decision was reconsidered and overturned in October

Campaigners also formed a human chain around West Way shopping centre in Botley in protest of plans to overhaul the site to the tune of £100million which was rejected by Vale of White Horse District Council in December

Concerns were also raised over plans that were submitted in September to build a 555 home estate in Wallingford with fears of overdevelopment in the area

But some proposed developments have received a more positive reaction, such as plans for the £500m Westgate Shopping Centre and Oxford train station

Building work has continued at the new Oxford Parkway station being constructed between the city and Kidlington

Travel

ROADWORKS and traffic delays were a hot topic throughout the year as a number of transport schemes were carried out across the county

Work began in June to develop the Hinksey Hill interchange and Kennington roundabout leading to traffic chaos for commuters while it was carried out.

Delays due to the weather meant that work overran but it was finally completed at the end of December

Oxfordshire County Council announced in October they would begin work on the Milton Interchange to create a bamburger style junction while north facing slip roads will be built at Chilton onto the A34

There were renewed calls from Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood for south facing slip roads to be built at Lodge Hill.

It comes as Abingdon continues to be affected by congestion issues and it is thought that upgrading Lodge Hill would alleviate traffic by allowing cars to access the southbound A34 from the north of the town

County council leader Ian Hudspeth also revealed his vision for improving traffic in West Oxfordshire in the summer with ideas including a tramway, upgrading the A40 or even building a monorail.

In October, 10 MPs pledged their support to re-instating the direct Oxford to Bristol rail service which could lead to the re-opening of Grove Station 50 years after it closed

And renovation work was completed at Didcot Parkway train station in September

Broadband scheme hits 25,000 homes

MORE than 25,000 homes and business in Oxfordshire now have access to superfast broadband.

Villages in West Oxfordshire and Vale of White Horse were the latest to receive the new technology which was made available to 3,500 properties last month.

Four fibre cabinets are now also live in Oxford, Wallingford, Thame and Henley-on-Thames.

The introduction of superfast broadband is a multi-million pound programme run by Oxfordshire County Council and service provider BT.

Nick Carter, cabinet member for business and customer services on the county council, said the new broadband would benefit Oxfordshire residents.

Cllr Carter said: "I am delighted that, through this partnership, we are able to connect many thousands of homes that wouldn't have had access to high-speed networks.

"Superfast broadband will help local businesses thrive and ensure residents in rural communities get the benefits of online information, entertainment and communication."

The Better Broadband for Oxfordshire programme aims to provide the new service to 94,500 homes and businesses by the end of this year.

BT and the county council have pledged to ensure at least 90 per cent of premises will have access to 24 Megabytes per second (Mbps).

Most recently, 900 properties in Combe and Stonesfield, 750 in Hailey, Milton-under-Wychwood and Acott-under-Wychwood, as well as 1,000 in Sutton Courtenay, West Hanney and East Hanney received the service.

Once cabinets are live, residents and businesses can request to upgrade their service from their Internet provider.

Steve Henderson, BT's regional broadband partnership director, is pleased with the progress of the programme.

He added: "The rollout of fibre broadband across Oxfordshire is gathering pace as we reach more communities, bringing the benefits of high speed broadband to more and more families and businesses."

Mr Henderson continued: "People are increasingly relying on the Internet for shopping, playing games online and keeping in touch with friends and family especially over Christmas.

"At the same time, faster fibre broadband enables small businesses to stay in contact with their customers and suppliers more easily and quickly."

Doric appeal West Way rejection

DEVELOPERS Doric Properties has appealed against the rejection of its £100million redevelopment plans for West Way shopping centre in Botley.

Vale of White Horse District Council's planning committee unanimously voted against the plans on December 3.

The committee raised concerns over the impact the development could have on the community and local infrastructure in Botley.

Doric wanted to demolish West Way shopping centre, Elms Parade shops, Field House sheltered housing and the empty Elms Court office block.

A supermarket, cinema, hotel, gym, shops, 50 flats and 525 student rooms was proposed to be built in their place.

Vale leader Matthew Barber said he was disappointed by the appeal.

He added: "It is disappointing that Doric have decided to appeal the decision rather than working to better address the numerous concerns that people have."

Doric's appeal will be determined by the Planning Inspectorate at a date yet to be set.

Woman killed

KIDLINGTON: A 22-year-old woman was killed in a car accident on the southbound A34 at Kidlington on Saturday.

The woman was driving a white Seat Ibiza when it left the carriageway and collided with a tree.

She was pronounced dead at the scene.

The Kidlington exit slip road was closed while an investigation was carried out, reopening at 4.15am.

Call Thames Valley Police on 101 with information.

Assaults arrest

WALLINGFORD: A 23-year-old man has been arrested in relation to two sexual assaults that took place in Bullcroft Park in December.

The first took place on December 6 when a man tried to kiss a woman.

And a teenage woman was inappropriately touched in the park on December 9.

The man was arrested on December 22, and has been released on bail until February 6.

Fire death

OXFORD: A man has died in hospital after a fire at his home in Marlborough Road just after 10pm on Saturday night.

Fire crews discovered the man in the house after a fire spread through the first floor and roof of the building.

He was taken to the city's John Radcliffe Hospital.

Watch manager Sean Meeme said: "Crews attended the scene and entered the building quickly, tackling a well developed fire so that they could rescue the person."

County council duo to receive New Year gongs

By Adam Flinn
adam.g@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE S chief fire officer and the person who managed the Olympic torch route through the county in 2012 have both been named in the Queen s New Year's Honours list

David Etheridge of Oxfordshire County Council s Fire and Rescue Service has been made an OBE in this year s list while county network co-ordinator Katherine Powley has been given an MBE

Abingdon resident David 48 has led the fire service since 2010 having started off as a firefighter in 1986

He is the first person to have been appointed as the chief fire officer in the same service from joining as a firefighter and has said he was accepting the award on behalf of everyone who has worked for the service

"I am both humbled and delighted in equal measure to have received an OBE from Her Majesty the Queen " said David

"Receiving the OBE is one of the proudest moments of my life I never dreamt when I joined that one day I would become chief fire officer and this really is the icing on the cake

"It is a privilege to work with so many dedicated colleagues and partners who provide me with tremendous support who have helped and trusted me to shape the service to become one of the best in the United Kingdom "

And 52-year-old Katherine who also lives in Abingdon, was given her honour for overseeing and managing events that affect the road network in Oxfordshire.

She previously worked for Oxford City Council before joining the county council in 2001 and is also a member of the board of directors for seven Oxfordshire academies

"It is a real honour to be made a MBE and I am very proud ' said Katherine

"I love the variety of my job whether it is mapping for the Olympic torch route or responding to an unexpected road closure and like the rest of my team I strive to go that extra mile in order to get things done

"I could not do what I do without the support of my colleagues and my receiving the MBE is the result of a team effort

Fatal crash

SHRIVENHAM Police are appealing for witnesses after a 32-year old man was killed in a collision on the B4000 between Shrivenham and Ashbury on December 27

The man was driving a black Ford Focus which crashed near Zulu Farm. He died at the scene

The road was closed while officers carried out an investigation at the scene

Anyone who saw the crash is asked to contact police on 101

Presents stolen

DIDCOT Thieves stole Christmas presents from a house in Itchen Court on the evening of December 23

Wrapped presents including children's toys a white Samsung tablet and personalised calendars were stolen from the living room

Investigating officer Det Con Georgina Bradley said. "This is a terrible burglary due to the fact that several children's presents were taken"

Call 101 with information.

Postal success

WANTAGE AND GROVE A scouting group has raised more than £3 500 from its Christmas card post service

Wantage and Grove Scouts sorted and delivered around 12 000 cards and delivered them to households

The £3 690 raised will go towards the Beaver Cub Scout and Explorer sections

New pool set to open

A NEW swimming pool in Blackbird Leys will open its doors to the public for the first time on Monday, January 5

The news comes as Temple Cowley Pools in Temple Road, Cowley, was closed on Christmas Eve after Oxford City Council upheld its decision to turn the facility into 47 new homes

All operations have now been transferred to the Leys Pools and Leisure Centre in Pegasus Road

Council leader Bob Price said "The new Leys Pools and Leisure Centre will be a state-of-the-art swimming pool and fitness complex serving the whole of the south-east-ern part of the city located only 1 5 miles from Temple Cowley

"It will replace the out of date and high-cost pools at Temple Cowley and Blackbird Leys and will be a huge asset to the city"

The new pool includes an eight lane 25 metre competition standard swimming pool a teaching pool, a fun water area for children new changing facilities a sauna and a new reception and cafe area

It will be officially opened on January 24

Families build their own Diamond Light Source

FIFTY families spent over five hours building a Lego model of the Diamond Light Source in Harwell.

Members of staff were joined by their children on December 22 to put together the model which consisted of 11 000 pieces

The model was masterminded by Paul Amos, a senior technician at the Diamond Light Source, as a way of explaining his work to his son Harvey

It is also combines their love for Lego building.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Paul said: "Harvey also has an interest in what I do at work.

"It can be hard to explain what a synchrotron is and what it does to a young person who hasn't seen anything like it before

"So I decided that I could use the Lego Digital Designer to build the synchrotron machine as a means to help me describe how the machine works

"We were very excited about seeing my digital Lego storage ring being built in to an actual Lego model."

The science facility is used for research into a wide range of specialisms including viruses vaccines and jet engines

Paul's idea for a model was set up as an educational project and Laura Holland, public engagement manager at Diamond, said she was keen to get other families involved

She added: "It took our engineers and scientists almost five years to build Diamond but we were hoping to build our model in less than five hours

"It was a really fun event and it's a great way for the children of our staff to find out what mum, dad, aunt or uncle do every day."

The model has now been dismantled so it can be taken to events across the country

MP's Corner

Nicola Blackwood

MP for Oxford West and Abingdon

Oxfordshire's future is bright

THOUSANDS of my constituents suffer awful congestion caused by the A34 every day but when I was elected in 2010, there had been no major investment on the A34 for over two decades

In two years of campaigning I brought the roads minister to see the gridlock for himself, raised the A34 in Parliament and led delegations to the Department for Transport

Already millions of pounds of improvements are underway at Junction 9, Hinksey Hill and Marcham, but this is not enough to solve the safety and capacity problems on the road

That is why I went right to the top, lobbying the Chancellor personally for the money we need for the A34 and making it clear that the A34 is dangerously congested and that without a long term capacity solution and immediate improvements to Lodge Hill, Peartree and Botley junctions, central Oxfordshire will grind to a halt

I will continue to fight for the vital diamond junction at Lodge Hill, which did not qualify for this funding round.

I have also been campaigning for years for the long term flood defences we need, as thousands of local people suffer the stress of flood risk every day

I was in Oxford and Abingdon for the appalling floods of 2007 and in 2010 the Government and Environment Agency said we didn't qualify for a £140m Flood Defence Scheme

In total, the Chancellor has committed £92 million for Oxfordshire. It is clear that the future is bright for Oxfordshire, and I personally will do all I can to make sure we continue to press for the infrastructure we need and I will not stop until it is signed, sealed and delivered.

Wallingford shoe shop to stay

CLARKS shoe shop will remain open in the town after an agreement was reached between the owner and the landlord

The Oxfordshire Guardian previously reported the St Mary's Street shop was due to close on December 20, but it will now stay in the centre of Wallingford.

Town councillor Bernard Stone said: "The shop has reached agreement with the landlord and is now staying.

"It is good news for Wallingford."

Last year saw the launch of the Oxford city edition of the Oxfordshire Guardian to replace the previous Oxford Journal

The Oxford Journal was set aside in July to streamline the newspaper with the existing five Oxfordshire Guardian editions

Before delving into why some of the front pages were chosen I want to make clear they were not chosen because they are good news in that what has happened is nice

Far from it sometimes

VARtOUS Didcot stories could have made this page

For an Oxfordshire town it has punched high above its weight in terms of news stories something our Didcot reporter Jack Johnson has been revelling.

The three fronts below show a range of same such stories from crime to human interest to community issues and last but not least the momentous moment the Didcot A Power Station cooling towers were demolished.

Another power station story was up there in the running to be included below because just three months later a blaze ripped through the other half of the station which was still running.

Jack caught onto the news over social media despite it all kicking off on a Sunday night and was the first to follow up on the fact that the fire was probably caused by an electrical fan fault for the printed edition of the paper out four days later

OCTOBER 9 Amid much of the news that police bases are being scaled back moved or even closed around Oxfordshire Didcot got some good news Jack quizzed the police s deputy chief constable to find out more

And it was more welcome news for residents to find out George Clooney bought a house in the countryside south of the town

JULY 31 Not only was our reporter there watching the blow down from the press pen on the power station site but Taylor Newspapers staff joined the throng watching the moment three of the towers toppled to surrender their guard over Didcot.

It came the same week as Ben Blakeley was finally sentenced for the murder of pregnant Didcot teenager Jayden Parkinson, making it one of the biggest news weeks the town has seen

SEPTEMBER 11 tragedy turned to hope for one Didcot family a year on from 10-year-old Freddie Perry's death after being hit by a car driven by a teacher at his sister s school.

Their campaign to lower the speed limit on the road was approved giving them comfort that their loss may mean it is less likely others suffer the same fate

THE Oxfordshire Guardian s Wallingford paper does not have a full year to pick from

It became the sixth edition of the Oxfordshire Guardian when it was first launched on July 3

But there are still plenty to choose from that made the grade

The paper has been a popular edition in the series which Jack Johnsen has added to his portfolio of responsibilities

Despite Wallingford being one of the smaller towns in Oxfordshire, he has not been short of some good stories which residents have been swiping from stands about the town

The filming of a BBC TV series in the town centre found by scouring through council documents proved one such hit

This story spiked page views on the Oxfordshire Guardian s website and may well explain why so many knew about the filming and visited the set

NOVEMBER 13 Remembrance Day is always a big deal for Wallingford as neighbours to RAF Benson and this year marks 100 years since the start of the First World War

Jack spoke to RAF Benson about the part they played in the Second World War and the troops lost which brought the war and its effects very close to home

OCTOBER 2 Wallingford is no stranger to TV cameras, as the Midsomer Murders series was shot there

But there was an extra bit of excitement for residents to find out celebs including Harry Hill, Ben Miller and David Mitchell would be tackling a fire in the town hall with a tea making machine for a children's Christmas comedy

It clocked up thousands of hits on our website in one day

OCTOBER 30 This front page covers two news updates on major stories in the town

One was about a Morrisons for Wallingford which dug in its heels against planning rules over a new store while the decision day for a 555 home estate was also pushed back

They both meant more delays for big developments

WANTAGE is very much still in limbo with regards to expansion and housing developments to be built

All year council officers and developers have been thrashing out how much money will be given to the town to build infrastructure to support the 2 500-home Grove airfield development

Only once this has been agreed can building work progress

One shocking story that emerged was of the death of aristocratic racehorse trainer James Douglas Home, 61, the nephew of former Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas Home. An inquest ruled he killed himself with a shotgun while suffering depression.

However Wantage has had its fair share of good news stories as well.

The Earl and Countess of Wessex opened a new arts building at King Alfred's Academy in April and the first ever combined carnival and music festival drew in crowds of up to 10,000 people at Manor Road park

Editor's pick of the pages: Witney

2014

THE West Oxfordshire paper is among our newest editions having launched in January

It has been a work in progress developing to focus mainly on Witney and Carterton in mid-2014

As Witney is a large market town which has stayed the pace in terms of progression and which is well and truly on the map as the Prime Minister's constituency Adam Flinn has not found it too tricky to dig up news

As everywhere it has its problems too such as development or funding for important projects like food banks

And everything is brought closer into the spotlight because it is on the Prime Minister's doorstep

The three fronts below show the variety of stories that have come up

No doubt that spotlight will only get brighter as we come closer to the general elections taking place on May 7, 2015 which are shaping up to be extremely interesting already

JULY 3 The hundreds of flowers laid within days of 14-year old Liberty Baker's death is evident of how much this tragedy gripped the community

It is every parent's worst nightmare for something like this to happen to their child but her family drew the strength to speak out about what she was like and what was lost

MAYOR IS INSULTED BY RUSSIA COMMENT
Carterton accused of bullying Brize Norton in housing fight

SEPTEMBER 25 An important story about developments near Carterton and Brize Norton took an interesting turn with residents likening the situation to Russia 'bullying' Ukraine and encroaching on their land

The comments sparked an angry reaction from Carterton's mayor

The campaigners made their point in an interesting way

JUNE 5 The phrase "all the world's a stage" springs to mind with this story

And it is Greenpeace who stepped into centre stage here

The fracking protestors took something which can be difficult to explain and acted out what effect it could have on peoples' lives, on the doorstep of the Prime Minister's house

Editor's pick of the pages: Abingdon 2014

A LOT of news stories from Abingdon have continued to roll on into 2015

There is uncertainty over when or whether the town will get its own cinema in the Guildhall after a funding grant was rejected, northbound link roads at the A34 Lodge Hill junction are still in the pipeline, a controversial pedestrian crossing in the town which a 159-home housing development off Drayton Road needs permission for to go ahead has been thrown back and forth to different council meetings

It is this year that Abingdon's housing plan could also be decided as part of the Vale of White Horse District Council's Local Plan.

While a shocking story is ongoing because it is making its way through the criminal court system in Oxford.

What actually happened in the suspected murder by the Thames in Abingdon is expected to come out this year with a provisional trial date having been set for April

NOVEMBER 27 Any rise in homelessness is obviously not good news But a real focus for this story was the fact that homelessness rose only a little while the costs of housing homeless people jumped a shockingly disproportionate amount

The story effectively calls into question if taxpayers' money is being used effectively at a time when cuts are rife.

FEBRUARY 13 In 2007 433 homes and 21 businesses in Abingdon flooded so people watched the waters rise with baited breath in the first few months of last year

But while Oxford fell to the flooding Abingdon miraculously escaped the worst

But this photo shows just how close some people's houses came to succumbing to Abingdon's rivers

NOVEMBER 20 We go into 2015 with a question mark hanging over the future of the town's Abbey Meadows park and its sports facilities

This article unveils to many residents for the first time what they could lose The next step for the council is working out if residents mind or if they want the land for something else

Welcome to The Lamb Inn

A traditional and beautiful 18th Century Cotswold village pub.

We have settled hosts, ales and menu of year-round ... sense of hospitality and ... UK. Our aim is to offer a relaxed welcoming ... with great service, ambience and ... home cooked food, produced in our kitchen ...

Enjoy the atmosphere of a classic old English Inn ... beams and a real log fire, tucking away ... until winter's night. Settle down with a pint of ... Wordsworth, Shakespeare, or whatever you have ... maybe.

Dogs are allowed in the bar area making us ... and all those enjoying a good country walk ... with well behaved four legged friends.

We support Cotswold businesses and use suppliers ... Butcher in Burford, Burts Harmers at South Cerney and Cackleberry Farm Eggs here in Witney.

Whether it's a coffee a quick pint a high lunch ... lounging, talks, meetings ... lunch, business meeting or a candlelit dinner The Lamb Inn has something ... We look forward to welcoming you

Rachel & Matt

Open for Morning Coffee and traditional Sunday Roast
Front dining room available for Christmas parties from 8 35 people
Open from Tuesday to Sunday for lunch and dinner

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Luxury retirement living comes to Witney

FOR many people, retirement can't come soon enough. The idea of no longer working 9 to 5 and having the freedom to indulge in your hobbies or go travelling is something to relish. Enjoying life to the full is a top priority at every Richmond retirement village where quality facilities, like-minded people and a safe and secure environment are all central to happiness and well-being.

Richmond Villages, which is part of Bupa and one of the pioneers in this field, designs, develops and operates their own premium retirement villages in the UK and has started construction of its latest, and sixth village in Witney. Opening in Winter 2015 it will provide Village Apartments offering an independent lifestyle, Village Suites which come with an all-inclusive package to help with the daily chores and a Care Home providing 24 hour nursing and dementia care.

Richmond Villages research shows that their customers are downsizing from large 4 and 5 bedroom houses, with clients wanting large living spaces but just 2 bedrooms. For this reason, the Village Apartments are predominantly 2 bedrooms and average 1000 sq ft which is larger than the average new build 3 bedroom detached house! The apartments include a fully fitted kitchen with granite worktop, lounge diner, one or two bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, en-suite shower room to master bedroom and 'family' bathroom. Within the hallway is a laundry cupboard which includes a washing machine, tumble drier and further storage space.

Proof of the demand for this type of high quality retirement development is that 70% of the Village Apartments are already reserved! Property prices start at £225,000 for Village Suites and £295,000 for Village Apartments.

The belief at Richmond Villages is that retirement should be enjoyable and a positive and active stage in life to look forward to. Richmond Witney therefore includes all the aspirational facilities that have made its other villages so popular, including a wellness spa with swimming pool and gym, hair and beauty salon, a library, IT room, terrace cafe, quality restaurant and garden bar and all set within beautifully landscaped grounds with a bowling green.

The concept of the retirement village was relatively unknown even just a few years ago but as an increasing number of people have discovered, it ticks many of the boxes they sought when thinking about downsizing and planning how they wanted to live their later years.

Although the new retirement village is located just off Thorney Leys Road on the edge of Witney, the sales and marketing suite is in Witney town centre where there is plenty of free parking. The suite is located at 58 High Street, Witney and is open Monday to Saturday 10am-4pm.

For further information about Richmond Witney call the village advisers on 01993 768692 or visit www.richmond-villages.com/aston.

Youngster on the rise

By James Richings
jamer @oxfordmagpaper.co.uk

ONE of Oxfordshire's hottest prospects will be ending 2014 in style as acoustic and rock singer Jamie Fellon is performing at The Coach and Horses Pub in Banbury on New Year's Eve

Jamie (right) who lives in Ardley is currently a Year 13 student at The Marlborough School in Woodstock where he studies A Level Music, Maths and French while performing around the county.

Everyone can expect a wide range of popular music spanning from the 60s to the present day, Jamie told the Guardian.

"My overall style is rock music on an acoustic guitar for the first two sets, then for the third set I liven the place up with rock songs on an electric guitar.

"I've also played there twice. The audience members were very friendly last time and gave me good feedback, so I'm looking forward to hopefully see some of them again."

Despite recording three albums and winning both Aylesbury's Got Talent' and Oxford's Got Talent in 2010, the teenager is aware that becoming a successful musician is a 50/50 draw.

However despite entering this risky industry the aspiring star revealed he's got the backing from his parents.

"My parents are really supportive," Jamie said.

"I'm extremely busy with gigs that are all over the county and my parents are very generous to drive me around.

"I'm very grateful because I couldn't play gigs without them."

Jamie added: "2015 will be one of the biggest years of my life.

"I have to concentrate on my schoolwork to achieve good grades for my A Levels and if I get into a music college in September it will be a brand new way of life in terms of living and education.

The gig will start at 9pm, with tickets costing £6.

Queen Christina

THE 1933 film Queen Christina will be shown at The Abingdon Health and Wellbeing Centre on Thursday January 8.

Greta Garbo stars as Christina, Queen of Sweden, who became queen aged just six after the death of her father in the 17th century.

Tickets cost £6 with the film starting at 7.45pm.

Call 01235 521975 for details.

Royal Blood

ROCK duo Royal Blood will be at the O2 Academy on January 8.

Mike Kerr and Ben Thatcher formed the group back in 2013 with their debut self-titled album peaking at number one in the UK album charts.

Doors for the Cowley Road gig open at 7pm.

Visit o2academyoxford.co.uk for more details.

'John' in Chippy

DV8 Physical Theatre will bring their brand new production JOHN to The Theatre Chipping Norton on January 7.

Tickets cost £13 with the piece starting at 7pm.

The production at The Spring Street venue is suitable for anyone over the age of 15.

New Year, new listings

IT has been a great year for entertainment as the theatres in Oxford spoilt us with a fine variety of gigs, musicals and comedy

So with a new year now upon us, what will January 2015 bring to Oxford's theatres?

The Oxford Playhouse will start the year off in style with tenor saxophonist Bobby Wellins opening the 2015 Oxford Jazz Masters Series on January 10

Pianist Richard Leigh Harris and double bassist Steve Kershaw will also be part of the concert

At the end of the month, comedian Mark Watson will also be at the Playhouse

The 34-year-old Bristolian funnyman will be heading to Oxford as part of his brand new UK tour, Flaws

The show is suitable for anyone over the age of 14

Moving to The New Theatre Oxford and the George Street venue will host Snow White on Ice from January 8 to January 11

See Snow White like you have never seen her before, starring the Russian Ice Stars

On January 14, The New Theatre will also host The Johnny Cash Roadshow with Clive John starring as the late country singer

Fans of 1950's music will be happy to hear that Rock 'n' Roll Paradise will also be heading to the New Theatre on January 15

Listen to music by the likes of Buddy Holly, The Big Popper, Roy Orbison and Eddie Cochran in a fun packed night at the George Street theatre

Irish musician Hozier will be at the O2 Academy on January 21

And finally, death metal group Amon Amarth will also be at the city's O2 Academy on January 23

What's on this January?

WITH 2015 finally here, a whole host of theatre, music and comedy will be luring the rest of the county this January.

Kicking off the entertainment will be the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot with the screening of the 2013 blockbuster The Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out of the Window and Disappeared on January 7 at the Station Road venue.

The Cornerstone will also be hosting an open mic night on the second Tuesday of each month, starting January 13, for all performers in the Oxfordshire area.

Rappers, musicians, actors and poets are all welcome to share their talents on stage.

At the end of the month, comedian, writer and radio presenter Robin Ince will bring his brand new tour, Blooming Buzzing Confusion, to Didcot on January 28.

By James Richings
jamesr@oxfordmediagroup.co.uk

The 45-year-old, who is known for presenting the BBC radio show The Infinite Monkey Cage with Brian Cox, will be asking unanswered questions which will leave your head hurting.

Moving to the north of the county to Banbury, The Mill Arts Centre will be hosting a very unique January pantomime.

The Cherwell Theatre Company will bring 'Robin Hood' to the Spiceball Park theatre from January 10 to January 13.

Comedian Andrew Lawrence will also be heading to Banbury as part of his 'Reasons To Kill Yourself' UK tour.

The 35-year-old will be in the market town on January 30 with his show suitable for anyone over the age of 16.

The Theatre, Chipping Norton will show 2014's historical thriller 'The Imitation Game' on January 15 and 17.

The film, which was released back in August, stars both Benedict Cumberbatch and Keira Knightly.

Staying at The Spring Street venue, the town's theatre will also host 'Buddy – Holly's Winter Dance Party' on January 24.

Marc Robinson, who will star as the legendary 50s singer, will perform along with the country's best Ritchie Valens, Big Bopper and Dion tribute acts.

And finally, to round off the first month of entertainment, The Snodun Players will perform their interpretation of 'Beauty and the Beast' from January 16 to 31 at The Wallingford Corn Exchange.

THE BALLAD OF RUDY
An original show for children aged 4 and up. In this story Rudy doesn't have a real name and he doesn't have a present to give his mum at Christmas and so he sets off on a journey to find a present that will make her smile. Along the way he meets a host of characters including a Reindeer called Dancer, a Penguin called Pengu and a Polar Bear called Polly. Rudy's journey takes him to the North Pole where he meets Santa and his elves at Santa's Grotto. Rudy's adventure is filled with songs and dancing and ends with a magical Christmas Eve party. ## French car giant Peugeot unveils new model in two-door sports coupe range

RCZ-R is breaking the mould

INTRODUCING the hottest ever version of Peugeot's stunning two-door sports coupe – the RCZ-R...

First launched back in 2010 the RCZ broke the mould with its sensual lehue curves and sporty individually designed interior

Since launch mainstream Peugeot petrol and diesel engines have been offered a 156bhp and 197bhp 1.6-litre

DRIVEN: Peugeot RCZ R

By Philip Shoulder

THP turbo and a more economical 163bhp 2.0 HDI diesel

Joining the range is this higher performance R model which could lay claim to being the most powerful road-going car that Peugeot has ever sold.

At its heart is a vast range of mechanical upgrades that wouldn't look out of place in a racing car – including a strengthened six-speed manual transmission.

Power is courtesy of a heavily reworked version of the firm's 1.6-litre THP turbocharged petrol engine which now produces some 270bhp at 6,000rpm.

The exhaust has also been modified, featuring an enhanced sound system to amplify the car's racy character

The Peugeot RCZ R rides on unique two-tone 19-inch alloys shod with Good year Eagle F1 tyres for increased road-holding. Cornering is sharp and precise and grip levels high

Performance is explosive with 0-62mph taking 5.9 seconds and the R storming on to an electronically limited top speed of 155mph

Yet despite this efficiency and combined economy remains similar to that of the 197bhp engine

Of course 270bhp is a lot of power to be channelled through the front wheels so you soon learn to feed in the power progressively

In the cabin sporty details separate the R from other RCZs including red stitching flat-bottomed steering wheel and supportive leather and alcantara Recaro sports seats It certainly meets the brief of luxurious sportiness

Elsewhere the switchgear is identical to other Peugeot models and is functional and pleasant to look at

The driving position is comfortable with plenty of steering column adjustment and space for front occupants is generous The same can't be said for the rear seats – which are only suitable for small kids or luggage The boot is surprisingly big though

Verdict

The R successfully fills the high performance gap in the Peugeot RCZ range and then some

SPORT REVIEW 2014

Football

Jack Johnson looks back at the thrills and spills that shaped Oxfordshire's sporting calendar over the past 12 months

It certainly hasn't been a quiet year for sport. There have been managerial changes, title winning campaigns, big name signings and plenty of ups and downs.

IT has been an eventful year for Oxford United with three managers, a change at the top table and a new brand of football.

The ball started rolling on January 28 when then manager Chris Wilder resigned to join Northampton Town after four and a half years in charge.

What followed was a two-month wait for a new manager and a drop in form that saw United fall out of Sky Bet League Two's automatic promotion places.

Gary Waddock was appointed head coach on March 22 but one win in seven games saw United finish outside of the play-offs.

It was evident that change was needed but what happened in the summer surprised many.

Fans favourite James Constable left for Eastleigh, while Ian Lenagan stood down as chairman, taking on the stadium development project instead.

And Darryl Eales was named the club's chairman with Mark Ashton as chief executive, but with that Waddock was replaced by Michael Appleton.

The U's began their league campaign with four defeats and while their form has picked up a 5-1 loss at Cambridge United remains among the low points.

Appleton's appointment also saw the emergence of a new style of eye-catching attacking football, and with a stronger core developing over November and December United enter the New Year in high spirits.

Over in the Vanarama Conference North there has been change at Oxford City.

Mike Ford stepped down as manager after five years in charge and Justin Merritt returned after he quit in 2009.

Merritt has introduced a more expansive free flowing passing game as well as seven Spaniards and are currently in the top 10.

Over in Division One South & West Didcot Town and Wantage Town could not have had more different years.

Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy guided Diddy away from the relegation zone last season and are in the top five at the end of the year after a 15 game unbeaten run and John Mills impressive 35 goal return.

Over at Wantage, Gary Ackling took The Freds to the Southern League for the first time in May but two months into the season there was a change in the make up of the club.

Tony Woodward stepped down as chairman and Ackling quit as boss.

Daniel Barry was appointed the new manager and despite experienced players leaving is starting to rebuild the team.

Zoldan guided United to safety last season but Abingdon have been unable to find any consistency in the league this year.

Other sport

ABINGDON golfer Eddie Pepperell's second year on the European Tour has seen him break the top 200 and qualify for the season ending tournament in Dubai.

The 23-year-old is currently ranked 152 in the world and finished 49th in the money list.

Pepperell came tied for 26th in the DP World Tour Championships in Dubai, the finale of the 2014 golf season.

In ice hockey Oxford City Stars won promotion to the National Ice Hockey League 1 in April.

Darren Elliott's side did the league and cup double this year but have struggled so far this season and are currently bottom of the league.

Elsewhere, Oxford Hawks Hockey have enjoyed a good start to their South League Premier Division One campaign and sit sixth in the standings.

Finally there was success for Oxfordshire in the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow as Didcot's Ben Watson and Dan Rivers came away with medals in weightlifting and shooting respectively.

Motorsport

ON the track it has been a rather remarkable turnaround for Williams Martini Racing.

The Grove based team emerged from the lowly doldrums of Formula One to beat Ferrari to third in the constructor's championship after impressive performances on the track.

The car was competitive throughout 2014 with Valtteri Bottas finishing fourth in the standings and Felipe Massa seventh.

Meanwhile Enstone-based Lotus had a disappointing season scoring only 10 points.

However it has been far from quiet at Caterham and Marussia with both teams struggling financially with staff redundancies and pulling out of the US and Brazilian Grand Prix.

Marussia then went onto cease trading completely.

On two wheels Bradley Smith finished his second year in MotoGP with his first podium and as the top Brit in eighth in the standings.

And in the British Touring Car Championship Jason Plato finished second in the standings and helped MG to the constructors' title.

Rugby Union

IT has been a year of mixed emotions for London Welsh after returning to the Aviva Premiership in June.

Their EPA Championship play-off final win over Bristol is their obvious highlight but then began their preparations for the top flight of English rugby.

Twenty-six new players arrived over the summer including New Zealand World Cup winner Piri Weepu, but Welsh who were hoping to not only survive but also compete in the Premiership, have endured a tough start to the season.

Justin Burnell's side are bottom of the league and without a win in all competitions with a 78-7 defeat at Saracens their heaviest defeat.

Meanwhile Oxford Harlequins have had a mixed bag since their promotion to National League 3 South West.

Quins are currently mid-table but will be hoping not to replicate a run of four straight defeats in September and October come January.

BEST MOMENTS 2014

Bradley's first MotoGP podium

THE wide eyed smile on Bradley Smith's face says everything about this picture as he celebrates his first MotoGP podium with Valentino Rossi at Phillip Island in Australia.

Oxford-born Smith had a great season aboard the Monster Yamaha Tech3 with 13 top 10 finishes and deservedly signed a new deal for next year.

It seemed only fitting that the 24-year-old had a shot at a podium and on the other side of the world in October he got it.

He may have benefited from other riders falling off in front of him but a third place finish was well deserved.

Smith said at the time. "I thought I was in fourth or fifth but then I saw my name in third on the board as I came around the corner which was an amazing feeling."

London Welsh's top-flight return

HEAD coach Justin Burnell's expression of euphoria as he lifts the Greene King IPA Championship trophy with Tom May sums up the effort and commitment of London Welsh's play-off triumph.

It says everything about the never say die attitude of that team which shone through in their comeback win over Leeds Carnegie in the semi-final and then in their brilliant victory against Bristol to clinch promotion.

This image marks a memorable and well-deserved return to the Aviva Premiership.

Burnell said back in June "If you work hard you get rewards.

"That's our environment and that what we thrive on.

"It's just fantastic for London Welsh it is a fantastic club.

"How good is that going to be in Oxford and for the supporters premiership rugby.

I'm absolutely over the moon."

• London Welsh celebrate promotion to the Aviva Premiership after the play-off final win over Bristol (picture by Martin John)

Robinson remains optimistic

FLY-HALF Will Robinson remains hopeful that a first win is just around the corner for London Welsh.

The Exiles who are bottom of the Aviva Premiership, were beaten 24-9 by next placed London Irish on Boxing Day.

It leaves Welsh winless this season but Robinson who has recently enjoyed a run in the side at full-back, remains optimistic.

The 21 year-old said: "The team are really positive.

"We're taking every week as it comes and hopefully that first win will come."

He added: "We have got a really good environment here but we take it on the chin."

Robinson has made five league appearances so far this season and has enjoyed his time in the side.

He said: "Playing in the premiership is where you want to be and I'm enjoying every moment."

Longford strikes late to rescue point

JACK Longford headed an injury time equaliser to earn Didcot Town a draw at Fleet Town last Saturday and extend their unbeaten run to 15 games.

The Railwaymen remained fourth in Division One South & West and have not lost in the league since August.

However Didcot had to do it the hard way last weekend as goals from Simba Mlambo and Aaron Blaxhall put Fleet into a 2-0 lead.

But Didcot's resolve shone through and John Mills reduced the deficit on 75 minutes from the penalty spot.

And in the third minute of stoppage time substitute Longford headed home to earn Diddy a point.

Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy's side are next in action today when they welcome local rivals North Leigh to Loop Meadow.

Elsewhere in Division One South & West Wantage Town remain winless under manager Daniel Barry.

The Alfredians put in an improved performance to the 5-0 defeat at North Leigh on December 20 but went down 2-1 at home to Swindon Supermarine on Saturday.

The defeat leaves Barry's side third from bottom in the table and without a win in nine league games.

Wantage host Evesham United this afternoon.

Meanwhile in the Vanarama Conference North, Oxford City were thumped 4-0 by Leamington on Saturday.

However Justin Merritt's side have an immediate opportunity to avenge the heavy defeat as they face the Warwickshire club at Marsh Lane today.

City head into the new year in eighth place.

In the Hellenic Premier Division, Abingdon United and Milton United drew 2-2 last Saturday in the Vale derby.

Kidlington beat Ardley United 2-1 and Oxford City Nomads lost 2-0 at Thame United.

APPLETON - WE MUST BUILD MOMENTUM

• James Roberts in action earlier this season, scored Oxford United's winner against Plymouth Argyle (picture by Steve Daniels)

OXFORD United head coach Michael Appleton said his players passed a 'massive test' in their 2-1 comeback victory over 10-man Plymouth Argyle on Sunday.

John Campbell's tap-in and James Roberts' sensational winner seven minutes from time saw United end 2014 with a valuable victory against a side who had only lost once at home all season.

The win went some way to forgetting the 2-0 defeat to league leaders Shrewsbury Town on Boxing Day and Appleton now wants to build momentum.

He told the club: 'The lads passed a massive test.

"This should be a real confidence booster going into the New Year."

Appleton continued: "We spoke about momentum and habits and doing the right things before the game and being repetitive in what we do.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"I genuinely believe that good teams that win things and that are successful do those things well.

"It is not a matter of doing them for two or three weeks and taking our foot off the gas.

"We have got to keep doing it and we will see if we are capable of doing it."

Lewis Alessandra gave Plymouth a 19th minute lead after scampering free of Chey Dunkley and rounding Ryan Clarke before finding the net from a tight angle.

However the turning point came on 33 minutes when Aaron Bentley was shown a straight red for a dangerous tackle on Sam Long.

United levelled the match on 65 minutes when Callum O'Dowda's freekick was headed across goal by Dunkley and Campbell was on hand to chest home his first goal for the club from a yard out.

And 18-year-old Roberts, on his first start for the club since returning from a hamstring injury, won the match in style on 83 minutes.

The teenager beat two Plymouth defenders before curling an unstoppable effort past former U's keeper Luke McCormick into the corner.

The win lifted United up to 16th in Sky Bet League Two, six points above the relegation zone and nine points adrift of the play-offs.

Oxford are next in action on Saturday January 3 when they welcome 19th-placed Cheltenham Town to the Kassam Stadium.
